PRESS RELEASE | 6 SEPTEMBER 2026

CHRISTIANS TO GATHER IN ACCRA FOR LET THE BIBLE SPEAK CONFERENCE 2026

A three-day, Scripture-centred gathering.

ACCRA, GHANA

Christians from across Ghana and beyond will gather in Accra from 16–18 September 2026 for the inaugural Let the Bible Speak Conference (LTBSC), a three-day, Scripture-centred Christian gathering calling the Church back to the authority, beauty and transforming power of God's Word.

Convened by Rev. Dr David Antwi, founder and senior pastor of Kharis Church, the conference seeks to renew confidence in Scripture and encourage faithful biblical teaching, sound Christian thought, wholehearted discipleship and lives shaped by the Word of God.

At the heart of the conference is a simple conviction: in a world filled with competing voices, the Church must continually return to the Bible as the foundation of Christian faith, doctrine, worship, life and ministry.

> We see 'Let the Bible Speak' as an opportunity to stand with pastors and churches by stirring a deeper, enduring love for the Bible and nurturing a passion for Scripture that draws believers continually to the Word of God with fresh hunger, joy and expectancy."
>
> — REV. DR DAVID ANTWI, CONVENOR

The conference is designed for pastors, church leaders, Bible teachers, young adults, students of the Bible and believers seeking deeper grounding in Scripture.

Contributors will include a distinguished line-up of speakers and a song minister drawn from across the Body of Christ, whose ministry will guide worship, teaching and reflection over the three days.

The conference's immediate focus is to serve believers and churches in Ghana while welcoming Christians from beyond the country. It reflects a wider commitment to strengthening biblical literacy, faithful teaching and wholehearted Christian discipleship across the Body of Christ.

Admission is free, subject to registration. Spaces are limited.

> “This will be a gathering where the beauty, authority and relevance of Scripture are celebrated, and where believers are encouraged to know God more deeply through His Word.”
